GOVERNOR'S FOES DELVING DEEPER

ATTACK SULZER FROM NEW ANGLE

Probers Want to Know How Primary Funds Were Spent.

COMMITTEEMEN SUBPOENAED

Frawley Inquisition Also Expects to Dig Deeper Into the Matter of Contributions to Sulzer's Campaign For the Governorship—Cranks Threatening the Lives of the Governor and Acting Governor of New York.

New York, Aug. 30.—Governor Sulzer will be attacked from a new angle
when the Frawley committee resumes its hearings at the city hall next Wednesday. The committee will try to find out about the money which friends of Governor Sulzer raised to help him in his fight for direct primaries. Specifically, it wants to know who contributed the money and how it was spent.

The first witness probably will be Herbert H. Lehman, treasurer of the ways and means committee of the committee of 100, which was organized to support the governor's primary campaign. He and other members have been subpoenaed.

The committee also will dig deeper into the matter of contributions to Mr. Sulzer's campaign for the governorship.

Aaron J. Levy, majority leader of the assembly, said that he was not bluffing when he said in Albany that he would sue J. J. Arnold and the Knickerbocker Press for libel because he had been charged with taking $5-000 from State Engineer Frederick Skene for getting through the legislature a supply bill item reimbursing
Mr. Skene for trial expenses.

Assistant District Attorney O'Ma-ley got from Skene a formal statement embodying and amplifying the story of the Levy check which Mr.
Skene told to Mr. Whitman on Thursday. Mr. Skene insisted that the payment was for legitimate services.

Mr. O'Malley will go to Albany
next week to meet Arnold and examine evidence against Levy and other Tammany men which Mr. Arnold professes to have.

The board of managers of the Sulzer impeachment trial will meet in this city next week.

The threats being received by Governor Sulzer, Acting Governor Glynn and prominent legislators are credited to cranks. Nevertheless strong-arm men have been placed in the Sulzer chamber at Albany to ward off any attack on Governor Sulzer.

ENGLISH FIRST LORD SETS CUSTOM ASIDE

VISCOUNT HALDANE HERE

First Lord High Chancellor to Leave
England in 400 Years.

New York, Aug. 30.—Viscount Haldane, the first lord high chancellor of Great Britain to leave his country since Cardinal Wolsey went to France, 400 years ago, arrived here on the steamship Lusitania for a flying visit of five days in this country and Canada.

The lord high chancellor, whose position in England corresponds to that of chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, is here as a guest of the American Bar association, before which he will deliver an address at its annual meeting in Montreal next Monday.

Lord Haldane freely discussed many questions of the day. He declared that he is in favor of woman suffrage, prophesied that a millennium of peace
was far off, said the relations between Germany and England were never more cordial, praised the intellectual growth of the United States and predicted that home rule for Ireland would soon be an accomplished fact.

M'DERMOTT DENIES PRACTICALLY ALL MULHALL'S STORY

BEFORE THE PROBERS IN HIS OWN BEHALF

McDermott Denies That He Ever Sold Out Labor.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois took the witness stand in his own behalf before the house lobby investigating committee. McDermott told the committee that he never had known Colonel M. Mulhall until during the reciprocity session of 1911.

"All this about meeting me in 1910 is pure bunk," said the representative. "So is the story about meeting me Christmas week in Washington and celebrating by giving me a dinner at the Reuter hotel. I was in Chicago until after the first of the year 1911."

The witness admitted having borrowed money from the allied liquor trades secretary, Mr. Harvey, and to the loans made him by George D.
Hornung, head of the pawnbrokers'
lobby in Washington. These loans were explained by Mr. McDermott as of a personal character altogether, and not made with any understanding between him and the lobbyists as to friendly legislative action on his part.
Pounding the table vigorously, McDermott denied that he had ever "sold out labor." He told the committee that he had not known Mulhall's connection with the National Association of Manufacturers during the period of their early acquaintance.

Prank Cost Man's Life.

Youngstown, O., Aug. 30.—Some of the friends of Sam Stumm, employed at the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, are alleged to have held him on the railroad tracks as a joke.
He was held there too long, was unable to get up quick enough and was run over and killed by a train.

MANY AMERICANS HEED WARNING AND FLEE FROM MEXICO ON TRAINS ALL TOO UNSAFE

Americans living in Mexico were then left in trains running over hazurged to leave the country until the arduous tracks, as shown in the illus-difficulties were settled. Some of tration. Bridges which were burned the trains could cross.

WILSON TAKES NEEDED REST WHILE ENVOY SOLVES REBUS

NEXT MOVE UP TO JOHN LIND

Envoy the Central Figure In the Mexican Situation.

WILSON VISITS SUMMER HOME

Lind Likely to Carry On His Negotiations With the Huerta Government
From the Mexican Port City—Reference to Possible Intervention Contained in Warnings Wired to Consular Agents.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The next move in the Mexican situation will depend largely upon the judgment of John Lind, the president's special envoy. No message was received by Mr. Wilson from Lind, and when the president left Washington for his summer home in New Hampshire he did not know whether or not Lind had left Vera Cruz for Mexico City or whether he had made up his mind
finally to carry on his negotiations from the Mexican port city. The president had left this matter entirely discretionary with Mr. Lind.

One of the most interesting developments was the information contained in dispatches from Mexico City that a reference to possible intervention was contained in the warnings telegraphed by the state department at Washington to all consular agents in Mexico. The warning is now being carried by couriers to all parts of Mexico. According to the Mexico City dispatches the official warning contained this sentence: "You convey to the authorities the indication that any misbehavior of Americans would be likely to raise the question of intervention." This is the first time that the possibility of a serious consideration of the intervention question has been suggested in any official communication, so far as is known. Indications are that this feature of the note of warning will stir up considerable ill feeling in Mexico and may operate

DR. CHARLES W. ELIOT

Would Instruct Children On Question of Sex Hygiene.

At the congress of the school of hygiene President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard led the discussion and advocated that more publicity be given such questions, saying that all false modesty should be laid aside and that the young should be taught and properly trained. Dr. Eliot asserted that a remarkable change has come about in regard to sex hygiene.
He said that medical discoveries have led to the shift in public opinion and that fathers and mothers feel a new duty toward their children.

DISCOVERY MAY BENEFIT STATE

WILL INCREASE REVENUES

State Auditor Donahay Announces the Discovery of a Law.

Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—State Auditor A. V. Donahay has discovered a law which provides that all boards, departments and institutions of the state shall certify to his department the amount of all claims which have been due and unpaid 60 days or more.
Under this law he has sent out blanks asking that lists of such outstanding accounts be made out and certified to his department. Judging by the way they are coming in, there are several hundred thousand dollars of such outstanding accounts in the various departments and institutions of the state. The institution for feeble-minded reports over $75,000 and the department of public works over $40,000, and one department head states that it will require two weeks for his stenographer to make out a list of such unpaid accounts to his department.

Mr. Donahay believes the new system to be installed will enable his department to assist in the prompt collection of all claims due the state or any department or institution, and will thus increase the state's revenue
as well as prevent discrimination against those who pay promptly.

CANADIAN LEGAL LIGHTS PETITION HIGHEST OFFICIAL

SEEK DEPORTATION OF HARRY THAW

Petition Filed With Canadian Minister of Justice.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 30.—Chase E.
Casgrain and R. C. Pringle, Canadian attorneys representing the state of New York, presented to Charles J.
Doherty, minister of justice of Canada, a formal petition signed by Thomas J. Carmody, attorney general for New York, praying that Harry K.
Thaw be deported to the place whence he came, so that he may be placed in safe keeping. The petition gives a history of Thaw's crime, his trials, his incarceration in the state prison and his efforts to gain his liberty. The petition alleges that the escape was effected through a criminal conspiracy and declares Thaw is an insane person, dangerous, and that he entered Canada by stealth in contravention of the immigration act. The petition declares that the public authorities of New York are prepared to take immediate custody of Thaw, to the end that he may be returned to the Matteawan state hospital.

IOWAN WILL DIRECT REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

WOODS ELECTED CHAIRMAN

Will Direct the Republican Congressional Campaign.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Representative Frank Woods of Iowa, who is recognized as a Progressive, and who was one of the members who took part in the uprising against Speaker Cannon three years ago, was elected chairman of the Republican congressional committee. Mr. Woods will be in charge of the Republican congressional campaign next year and will begin work on his plans at once. Senator Brandegee of Connecticut and Representatives Kahn of California and Patten of Pennsylvania were named as vice chairmen.

Chairman Woods announced that in collecting campaign funds no contributions would be accepted from any firms or corporations supposed to be concerned in the tariff or other questions of legislation.

CAUCUS RULE BEATEN DOWN BIG INCREASE NOW ASSURED

TO BOOST RATES ON BIG INCOMES

Protest of Senators Against Cancus Rules Bears Fruit.

INCOME TAX TO BE READJUSTED

Likely That All Questions On the Pending Tariff Bill Will Be Settled
at a Caucus of Democratic Senators
To Be Held Next Week — Senator
Hitchcock Speaks On His Corporation Tax Amendment.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The protest by Democratic senators against the caucus rules on the income tax feature of the tariff probably will result in a substantial increase in the rates
to be levied on large incomes.

Indications point to a boosting of the rate on incomes from $100,000 to $250,000 to 5 per cent, on incomes from $250,000 to $500,000 to 6 per cent and on incomes beyond $500,000 to 7 per cent. The bill as drawn at present provides for a tax of 3 per cent on all incomes over $100,000 and in addition to this a tax of 1 per cent.
There also may be changes in the rates affecting the small or lower incomes; a new system of graduation is likely to be proposed on incomes from $1,000 to $10,000 a year.

The bill at present levies a flat rate of 1 per cent on all incomes from $3-000 to $20,000. Incomes under $3,000 a year are exempted. In the cloak-rooms there was much conferring and not a little complaining. The Democratic leaders are trying to avoid a new caucus on this feature of the tariff bill, but it is not likely they will be able to do so. Insurgents declare a caucus will be called next week.

The Democratic members of the finance committee began sessions to readjust the income tax to meet the demands of insurgent Democrats.

It is expected that a Democratic senate caucus will be held early next week to settle all questions on the tariff bill.

Senator Hitchcock (Dem., Neb.),
attacked the caucus rules in a speech on his amendment for a heavy penalty tax on trusts or monopolies controlling more than one-fourth of the country's production or trade in any given line. Senator Hitchcock declared that his amendment had been offered in the caucus and beaten, 23 to 18, but he alleged it had not been an open fight there. "Why should senators," he asked, "be expected to be bound by the hasty decisions of a secret caucus on details of the income tax?"

Republican attack on the tariff bill
in the senate centered about the provision that would permit civil service laws to be disregarded in employing inspectors, deputy collectors and agents to administer the new income tax laws. The Democratic majority was charged freely with trying to break down the civil service laws and open up new jobs to "political favoritism."

Result of Competitive Bidding.
Washington, Aug. 30.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels awarded the contract for 343 tons of steel castings required for battleship No. 39, which is to be built at the New York navy yard. The contract went to the American Steel Foundries company as the lowest bidder at $92 a ton. The secretary's policy of insisting upon real competitive bidding has, it is contended, resulted in a saving of about 30 per cent on prices paid in 1910 for practically the same material.

PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL FAVORS THE ELECTION OF CHARTER COMMISSION

Mr. E. J. Light, Who Has Had Abundant Opportunity to Study All Local Conditions Believes the Proper Solution to a Knotty Problem is Charter Form of Government.

SAYS TAXES WILL NOT BE HIGHER UNDER CHARTER FORM.

Calls Attention to Fact That Election of Charter Commission Next Tuesday is First Step, and That Citizens Will Have Opportunity at Later Election to Say Whether They Want More Improved Form of Conducting Municipal Affairs.

Editor the Herald:

The question to be decided on next Tuesday, "Shall a Commission Be Chosen to Frame a Charter" for the government of this city, is one in which every citizen should take an interest. From the expressions of dissatisfaction that have been made for the years we have been working under our present municipal code, against the code and the officers elected thereunder, I believe there are many who want some change made in our present system. This city is not alone in the desire for a change, but all over the state the cities are asking that a commission be chosen to frame a charter for their cities, thereby indicating that they are not satisfied with the present code.

In voting for this proposition it does not mean that any change will be made now, but only that the commission that is elected shall submit a charter, which after it has been prepared and a copy thereof mailed to each voter, then the question of its adoption or rejection shall be determined by the ballots of the electors of the city. If this commission does frame a charter whether it be the commission form, the city manager form, or the federal plan, that is an improvement over present municipal code, why not elect a commission and give it the opportunity to present a charter?

In cities that have been operating under the commission or the city manager plan, greater efficiency has been attained and the business of the cities has been conducted more economically. It is not true, as it has been said by some that the tax rate would be higher, for under the statutes the rate can not exceed 10 mills, except to provide for interest on bonds and the sinking fund, and to increase the present tax rate could only be done by a vote of the people, which could be done under our present system.

REPAIRS ARE MADE AT PUMPING STATION

Repairs on the air compressor at the pumping station were completed about eight o'clock Friday night after the compressor had been out of commission nearly 26 hours, and the water pressure had been very weak for that length of time.

All day Friday only a limited amount of water could be forced into the mains, and by evening the pressure was very weak.

A liberal reserve supply of water accumulated over night and the supply is about up to the average once more.

There will be no issue of the Herald Monday, Labor Day.

BUILDING WALL ALONG SIDEWALK

The work of constructing retaining walls along the central school grounds, is under way, and when the walls are completed they will not only prevent the sidewalks being covered with mud as the case has been after each rain during the past few months, but will beautify the grounds.

Since the soft earth has been placed upon the grounds to complete the grade, every rain has sent a deluge of mud upon the sidewalks, causing them to become almost impassable and causing much annoyance to those who are in the habit of passing the grounds.

Whether some new cement sidewalk will be constructed where the old brick walk is badly worn, is not known.

Killed While Hunting.

Columbus, O., Aug. 29.—John Iden Corbin, 55, farmer, who lived near Dublin, was found dead near his home by his wife, with a load of shot in his breast. The shotgun, which had evidently been discharged when Corbin tried to get over a wire fence, was still hanging in the fence.

STRICKEN FAMILY NOW HAS NURSE

Humane Officer Gooderl, Acting With Consent of Union Township Trustees, Secures Nurse for the Allen Kelly Family Where Mother and Three Small Children Are in Serious Condition With Typhoid Fever.

Humane Officer Gooderl Saturday morning secured a nurse to attend the Allen Kelly family on East Temple street, and accompanied her to the house in question where she commenced her duties of attending the afflicted family, and according to Officer Gooderl she is to be paid $1 per day for her services, the Union township trustees having given consent to Officer Gooderl employing a nurse at the above price.

With the aid given by the Kitchen Garden society and the nurse, conditions about the afflicted home are becoming more encouraging, although some of the sufferers are still very seriously ill with the dreaded typhoid.

It has developed that the deplorable condition of the sufferers had been called to the attention of the Probate Judge, and that the Juvenile Officer, Henry Jones, was sent to the Kelly home Friday to make an investigation, and reported conditions almost unbelievable.

With the attention of the nurse the medical attention will have a better opportunity to do good, and improvement of the afflicted family is confidently expected.

SACRED CONCERT IN WILLIS PARK

Tomorrow evening the Imperial band of Washington C. H., will give a concert of sacred music at the Odd Fellows' camp in the beautiful Willis park on the west side of our city.

The public is invited and everybody is welcome. Let the citizens of Washington bring their families and enjoy a pleasant evening at this concert in the grove.

Plenty of room to park automobiles and stand horses and buggies. No charges, no entrance fee. The Odd Fellows and the band simply providing our citizens with an enjoyable evening in the park.

Rev. Ross, of Grace church and Rev. West of the First Baptist church will be present and each will give a ten minute talk, between parts of the musical program.

Those desiring to do so may come early, bring their evening lunch with them and eat in the park.

SECURED RELEASE OF ACCUSED MEN

Attorney H. M. Rankin was called to Chillicothe Friday to represent Willis and Walter Cartwright, of this city, who were arrested in Chillicothe this week on a charge of trying to beat a saloon-keeper out of 30 cents for lunches.

Attorney Rankin secured an audience with the Mayor of Chillicothe and soon had the young men freed of the charge. It is claimed that the two men were denied all rights to summer assistance until after repeated efforts, and that the charges against them were built upon such slight grounds that they were soon knocked to pieces. The evidence was purely circumstantial, it is claimed. Both men were firm in their claim that they had paid the amount, leaving it upon the counter, and that when they left someone had pocketed the change.

R. B. PALMER GAINS HIGH HONOR

Washington friends of Mr. R. B. Palmer, now residing in Cincinnati, were interested in learning through Saturday morning's Commercial Tribune, of honors which were bestowed upon him at the annual convention of the American Association of Accident Underwriters, of Chicago. Mr. Palmer was elected a member of the Executive committee, the way being paved for his election when he led in a discussion of the president's address. His line of argument and force made a very favorable impression and he was also placed on the committee on insurance election.

SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS MEETING

The Washington Board of Education held a meeting Friday night and among other business transacted, passed a resolution limiting the number of members in the Board to five.

This action was in compliance with the new law which provides that school boards in cities of less than 50,000 inhabitants, shall by resolution, decide whether the number of members shall be limited to three, four or five.

Two members will be elected at the November election.

Elden Ervin was employed as superintendent of the school buildings, looking after the janitor work and heating.

Other business of a general nature was transacted.

In Social Circles

The younger set was indebted to Miss Dorothy Saxton for an extremely pretty party Saturday afternoon. A wealth of yellow marigolds, golden glow and golden rod, with greenery, transformed the home into a beautiful bower of flowers, and made ideal setting for the pretty young buds in delicate hued summer gowns.

Miss Saxton was looking lovely in white, with wide girdle of gold mesquite and was assisted by her aunts, Mrs. R. C. Hunt and Miss Anne Saxton, Misses Jean Glascock, Margaret and Nell Mark.

The affair was a Kensington and a "Buttonhole" contest, the prizes, scissors and thimble, was singularly apropos.

The yellow and white tones of the decorations were carried out in a summer collation and a big bowl of golden punch.

Mrs. Jesse F. Blackmore and little son, Paul Franklin, of Good Hope, are spending the week with Mrs. Blackmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garlinger, north of town.

Mrs. Frank Evans and daughter, Miss Isabell, and Mrs. Arthur Pyley left Saturday for a week's visit with relatives in Springfield and Mechanicsburg.

Dr. Robert Barnes and wife, who have been visiting Dr. Barnes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Barnes left for their home in Columbus Friday night.

Hon. A. R. Creamer was a business visitor in Columbus Friday.

Mr. J. A. Landerman motored over from New Holland Saturday accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Grace Snider and baby, who were returned to their home in Indianapolis, Ind., after a week's visit.

Mr. J. W. Gortell, of Sabina, is a business visitor here for the day.

Mr. Will Hays, who came out from Urbana, Ill., to attend the Parrett band sale and visit relatives in this county, returned to his home Friday evening.

Edmund and Dorothy Allen, of Athens, are visiting their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen.

Misses Carrie McElroy and Myra Thompson, two particularly efficient operators of the Home Telephone Co., left Saturday for Dayton, where they have accepted good positions in the main office of the Bell Telephone Co.

Mrs. Evans returned to Columbus Saturday after a visit with her son, Mr. Walter Evans and family.

Miss Carrie McElroy and Myra Thompson left Saturday morning for a ten days' visit in Columbus, Jackson and Wellston.

Mrs. S. D. Morgan and daughters, Mrs. Mark McElroy, and Mrs. Ray Lindemann, of Columbus, the latter accompanied by her husband, motored down from Columbus Friday.

Mr. J. H. Allen and daughter, Miss Flora, are spending several days at the Allen farm at Blanchester.

Mr. William Westerfield arrived Friday afternoon from New Orleans, La., to join Mrs. Westerfield and daughter at the home of the former's father, Col. B. H. Millikan.

Joseph I. Taggart, of Portsmouth, is located in this city and will have charge of this county as representative of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. Mr. Taggart is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Taggart, of Jeffersonville. He is an experienced man in the life insurance business, having been engaged actively for several years. Previous to taking up life insurance Mr. Taggart taught in the high school at Portsmouth.

Mr. R. C. Hunt left Friday night on a business trip to Adairville, Ky.

There will be no issue of the Herald Monday, Labor Day.

ENJOYABLE KENSINGTON.

One of the most enjoyable of the summer Kensingtons given by the ladies of the W. R. C. was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. McKee on Friday afternoon. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames Lindsey, Pearce, Plym, Phillips, Boswell, Sanderson, Hyer, McCoy, Martin and Kid. An unusually good program added much to the afternoon pleasure. Miss Mary Edge rendered a fine piano solo. Anna Connor then spoke "The Absent-Minded Man," which was very much enjoyed. Next Mildred and Mabel Kid gave a pretty vocal number and Ruth Davenport spoke "The Boy Who Knew Too Many Pieces." Miss Marie Tharp closed the program with a piano solo which was well rendered for so young a player. Mrs. Gardner, late of Lancaster, was an out-of-town guest.

ENTERTAINS CLUB.

Miss Mary Helen Smalley delightedly entertained the Good Hope club Thursday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Boyd, Mrs. J. P. Snyder and Mrs. H. C. Smalley.

A "Donkey Contest" was one of the amusements provided. Miss Margaret Stember winning first prize and Miss Lela Mae Murry the consolation. A most tempting lunch was served by the hostess and the entire afternoon thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

Those present were Misses Mildred and Doris Rife, Melba and Geraldine McCoy, Hazel and Helen Middleton, Grace and Florence Smalley, Jeanette Walker, Esta Holdren, Lucile Canter, Lela Mae Murry, Moselle Taylor.

CORN CUTTING IS NEAR AT HAND

The dry weather in some parts of the county has been the means of causing the corn crop to mature much earlier than it would if there had been an abundance of rainfall, and next week will witness the first corn cutting in the county, and the following week corn cutting will be general.

As usual there will be a heavy demand for extra workmen, and hundreds of men from southern Ohio are expected to make their annual visit to this county to help the farmers cut their corn.

The crop will be a large one this year, and prices are exceptionally good, so that Fayette farmers may consider themselves very fortunate when it is known that this county is one of the few spots where a really large crop will be harvested.

TRAVELING MAN RECOVERS SUITCASE

P. A. Miller, the traveling man who lost a valuable suitcase a few days ago after it had been entrusted to the care of a C. H. & D. brakeman, has recovered his property and it was not stolen as at first believed.

It developed that when the brakeman placed the suitcase upon the ground while assisting some women to the platform, that a man who met the women picked it up, supposing that it was the property of the women. The mistake was not discovered until the women were preparing to return home. When it became known that they did not own the case, it was returned to the owner, whose name was on some of the papers inside.

UNUSUAL NUMBER TO ENTER COLLEGE

The class of 1913 will send an unusually large percentage of its number to college this fall. Twelve of the class are preparing to leave in September for their chosen school.

Davis Edwards, president of the class of 1913, enters Chicago university; Miss Jane Saxton, class historian, goes to the O. W. U., Delaware; Paul Zimmerman, editor-in-chief of the class annual, "The Owl", will take his course at Miami university.

Miss Alice Parrett, class secretary, Miss Ruth Smith, class prophet, Miss Eva McClure and Maxwell Dice, all go to Miami. Miss Mary Tysor, class lawyer, enters Ward-Belmont at Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Sara Holmes, class poet, goes to Denison university and Miss Mary Collins, Ohio university at Athens. Ed Williams, business manager of "The Owl" enters O. S. U. Miss Helen Archart has already gone to Detroit, Mich., to enter the Thomas Training school.

Three of the class have successfully passed the teachers' examinations and have secured positions for the coming year.

Miss Kathryn Mark will teach the Jasper school; Miss Ruth McCoy, the school on the Snow Hill place, and Miss Anna Conner has been elected substitute teacher in the Washington schools.

Proving the Power of Peace

President Wilson in the position he has assumed before the world in dealing with the troublesome Mexican situation has proved to the world that right is might and that might is not always right.

It is a little difficult sometimes, especially in crises like that one existing between this nation and the Huerta regime to see the might of right, but it is nearly always, in such times, comparatively easy to see the right of might.

President Wilson in his message to Congress disclosing the proposals made to Huerta and the negotiations which followed the submission of the proposals has furnished abundant proof that right still reigns and is, after all, more powerful, more speedy and less costly in bringing about the desired end than might.

Every American must feel a thrill of pride when he reads the president's message to Congress. It is an exposition of statesmanship of the highest type and the appeal to the greatest court on earth, the great moral opinion of the public, will not be denied.

The world has seen the facts and the world has understood—understood more clearly than any war of conquest could have brought understanding.

Americans in Mexico have been warned to leave that unhappy land and this nation through the president, congress concurring, has announced that it will not help conquer either side to the dispute.

Better, far better than the horrors and the cost of war, Woodrow Wilson has appealed to the great court of justice.

The nations of the earth are a unit in commending his exhibition of faith in the efficacy of peace.

His message is an addition to the arguments for peace, universal, the value of which cannot be overestimated—it is an appeal to lift the awful load of army and navy cost from the overburdened shoulders of the people and must eventually be productive of great good—it is a sign board which points the way to the goal of peace which all nations of the world are striving to reach.

Representatives of all nations have pleaded for peace and argued for peace, but it remained for the United States to prove the power of peace and the greatness of right when an actual crisis came.

Vote Your Opinion Tuesday

On Tuesday next the people of Washington are going to vote and by their votes determine whether or not a commission of fifteen representative citizens shall be chosen to frame a charter for the government of the city.

Nothing remarkable about that. In, and of itself, there is absolutely nothing out of the ordinary in the citizens of Washington evincing a desire to avail themselves of their constitutional privileges and to vote on that question.

A little more than a year ago the voters of Ohio amended the constitution of the state by writing into the organic law of the commonwealth the amendment which made it possible for the people of any municipality to declare by their votes, which one of three forms they preferred for the government of their city.

The voters in several cities of Ohio have already availed themselves of that privilege and the voters of some cities have already adopted a new charter, believing the form adopted to more nearly meet their needs than the old general form. The voters of some of the cities have declined to make a change, believing that the old general form provided by the municipal code was better adopted to their needs than any one of the new forms permitted under the constitutional amendment, and the legislative enactments.

In both instances the voters settled the question and under "municipal home rule" the voters are the controlling power.

There is absolutely no need to exhibit any passion in a campaign of this sort. Every honest, conscientious voter wants to do what is best in the election Tuesday.

One fact every voter of Washington should have indelibly stamped on his mind is that, if at the election Tuesday, a majority of the votes cast are in favor of choosing a commission, it does not mean a change in the form of city government.

It means simply that the fifteen men who receive the largest vote will go to work and build a charter under which they believe Washington people will secure a better government than they have now.

Afterward, within a year, before the charter becomes effective, it must be submitted to the people and adopted by them. They then have the opportunity of rejecting the work of the commission.

In the meantime every good citizen should look at the question calmly and patriotically, actuated solely by a desire to do what is best for the interests of the city, laying aside all petty, selfish motives.

The larger broader good—the community good—should control the result and direct the hand of every voter who, with pencil traces his mark on the ballot.

Cities, like individuals, are progressing these days, and unreasoning, blind abuse deters no man in the discharge of his duty.

Poetry For Today

BEYOND THE NIGHT.

The city lights are bright with flame where up and down the street The city's gleam flares up the way for countless drifting feet: And yet, I often turn away, where through a window pane A dim, old-fashioned candle light shines down a country lane.

The city has a thousand songs—a multitude to sing; A thousand voices sweep the night where dim cathedrals ring; And yet I often turn away where all the morning through A mocking bird calls back to me across the silver dew.

The city has a mighty voice—a siren voice that calls. Where Fame is pleading night and day within her star-crowned walls; And yet I often turn away where in the fading light A waiting mother used to call her boy in from the night.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Extension of the area of the forest reserves in the Appalachian mountains has been some 711,000 acres this year, 1,200,000 are being in the process of purchase for the next year. All told, about $8,000,000 has so far been spent in purchasing these forest areas, all lying near the head waters of the navigable streams. The average price per acre for this land was only $5.07.

When the public schools of New York city, which has just contracted to spend $250,000,000 for subways, open next month, 100,000 boys and girls or one-sixth of the total enrollment will be obliged to stay at home or be allowed to roam the streets because enough money was not provided to build school houses to accommodate them. It will take 50 new buildings, seating 2000 each to give seats to all the children who will be on part time next month.

The Hippodrome opens this evening with a new spectacle, "America," which will be devoted to exhibiting 18 scenes representative of unusual works of nature and man in this country. A carnival of athletics will be introduced and a great water-tank will be used for several features. In one scene 70 horses are to be used, it is said.

The Pennsylvania railroad is to install a wireless telephone system on its trains with the idea of preventing accidents. It will permit the conductor in a caboose on freight trains to talk with the engineer and will reduce the number of brakemen necessary on a train.

For many years the world has been puzzled by the problem of where the pins go that are turned out in millions of millions by the pin factories, says the Washington, D. C. Herald. But the problem seems to be solved at last. A Paris expert has been experimenting on pins, hair pins and needles by the simple process of watching a few. He says they disappear into thin air, by changing into ferrous oxide, a brown dust. An ordinary hair pin took 154 days to blow away. A steel one lasted about 15 months. A common pin took 18 months to vanish. A polished needle lasted longest, taking two and one-half years.

The first of the five of the largest locomotives in the world has been completed and is being given a final test at the plant of the Lima Locomotive Works, before being formally turned over to Erie to be used for passenger service between Jersey City and the Susquehanna river at Philadelphia. The engine was built at a cost of $40,000. It is of the Pacific type and for a speed of 100 miles an hour. It can only be used between the points named because it is too large to clear tunnels on the western division of the Erie.

Business Notes: Hass & Shaft are preparing to put up a building to occupy as a carriage manufactory, on Fayette street, adjoining the residence of Jacob Dahl.

Joe N. Wilson has bought out the interest of his brother John L. Wilson, in the Washington Planing mill, and will continue the business alone.

We understand Messrs. S. N. Yeoman and F. L. Nitterhouse, have purchased the property occupied by P. S. Collins restaurant and R. Stewart's tailor shop and intends tearing down the old building and putting up a new business block.

J. F. Hopkins intends opening a branch undertaking establishment in Bloomingburg, in a short time.

Peter Getz and Henry Snider have gone into partnership in the draying business, having bought out Kirg. Saxton.

We understand the new pork house which has been commenced, is to be built of brick, 50 by 80 or a 100 feet and three stories in height.

Editor Herald: Please announce that A. R. Creamer of the firm of Gregg and Creamer, will be a candidate for prosecuting attorney subject to the Republican primary election to be held on the 12th of August.

DON'T BE MISLED

VOTE YES

ON THE QUESTION

"Shall a Commission be Chosen To Frame a Charter?"

DON'T BE MISLED!

Vote yes because Charter government means the rule of the people, instead of gang rule with axes to grind.

The cry that "if charter wins taxes will jump" is false. The home rule provision of the constitution gives the legislature the power to limit our tax rate, and also our right to incur debt, which it has done. Also the right to examine our records and accounts, and make police and sanitary regulations for the general welfare of the state. Aside from that, the people can have whatever the majority want, not in conflict with state and national constitutions or laws passed thereunder.

Vote yes and give fifteen good men a chance to formulate a plan of government that will best meet our local requirements, that will mean greater efficiency, greater economy and make it possible to keep tabs on our officials and fix responsibility.

Vote yes because we have much to gain and nothing to lose. The work of the commission is not binding unless adopted by the people.

Vote yes. For in the framing and adoption of a proper charter lies the greatest hope and opportunity for Washington.

DEATH TO BOSSISM

"Ballots bury bosses!" These significant words formed part of the headlines in the Springfield Sun on the morning following the recent adoption of a charter by an overwhelming majority.

The charter form of government means death to political bosses, and places the people in power.

Note the opening paragraph taken from the Springfield Sun write-up of the charter election:

"The voters of Springfield yesterday went on record decisively as being in favor of the adoption of a charter, drafted for the purpose of securing for their city, the right of self government in local affairs, abolishing the weaknesses and vicious features of the present form, and opening to the citizens of Springfield, their children and their children's children, a new field of opportunities for civic development and the exercise of greater and wider powers as a community."

Vote yes and you vote against political bosses; you vote for your rights! You vote for a bigger, better Washington! You vote for a more economic form of government.

THE MAN WHO WORKS AGAINST THE CHARTER FORM OF GOVERNMENT HAS AN AX TO GRIND. WATCH HIM!

CITIZENS FAVOR IT

The following well known citizens, who do not speak without thinking and whose opinion should be positive proof that the old form of government should be discarded and a government suitable to the city's best requirements, and one free from bossism should be chosen, all favor the charter form of government and have so publicly expressed themselves:

Hon. Humphrey Jones, Frank L. Stutson, C. U. Armstrong, Dr. L. M. McFadden, Dr. J. F. Dennis, J. F. Adams, Dr. D. H. Rowe, Roy T. McClure, Dr. A. R. Todhunter, Dr. Roy Brown, Hon. C. A. Reid, David S. Craig, W. B. Rogers, George Jackson, L. Eggleston, Dr. H. L. Stitt, Henry Brownell, Frank A. Chaffin, Dr. G. W. Blakeley, J. E. Mark, H. B. Dahl, W. W. Hamilton, Dr. W. E. Ireland, Dr. R. M. Hughey, W. H. Dial, Dr. G. H. Hodson, E. C. Hamilton, Dr. L. P. Howell, Dr. L. L. Brock, Robert Howat.

And hundreds of other well known citizens of all political parties who have not been asked for an opinion, FAVOR THE ELECTION OF A COMMISSION TO FRAME A CHARTER. Vote YES. Vote for 15 good men next Tuesday.

J. H. Patterson Says

Upon the eve of the election to decide whether the new charter should be adopted for the government of Dayton, Pres. John H. Patterson, of the National Cash Register Company, said:

"The flood will have been a benefit and a blessing to every person in the city provided the charter is secured. The voters can secure it and Dayton can in a decade be doubled in area, in population, in the value of its property and in the efficiency of its people. Dayton can be made the most beautiful, the most healthful and the most desirable place in which to live, and also the best place to conduct the business of making and selling products—in fact, the model city of the world. I will do all I can to help make our city's government the best of the people, by the people and for the people."

JOHN H. PATTERSON.

A charter will mean as much to this city as the Dayton charter means to that city. Vote yes. Vote for 15 good men for commissioners.

Do you desire to obtain a more efficient and more economic city government for Washington? That is the question now directed to the voters of this city.

It is with the form of government only, at this time, that the efforts for betterment are being directed.

The voters of Columbus, Dayton, Springfield and other cities have expressed their dissatisfaction with present forms by electing Charter Commissions and adopting charters.

Every voter who is in favor of making a determined effort to better Washington's present plan of government should vote yes.

Athletic Experts Predict Reller of Cornell Will Be Next "Nine Three" Sprinter

DOES the amateur sprinter live who can run 100 yards in 9.35 seconds? This question, which was once answered to the satisfaction of all by one Arthur Duffey is now confronting the athletic sharp again. The Amateur Athletic union credits Dan Kelly with doing "nine three" at Spokane back in 1906, but the best that this record gets from intelligent athletic critics is a good laugh. Kelly proved very well afterward that he was a smashing good broad jumper, but as a maker of 100 yard records he was a joke. Dan Kelly was a slow "ten one" sprinter—that's all.

Of the present crop of American sprinters there seem to be four and possibly five with a chance of doing the coveted 9.35 seconds. These are Howard Drew, the national champion; Don Lippincott, the 220 yard intercollegiate title holder; his college mate, J. E. Patterson; A. O. Reller of Cornell and possibly Alvah Meyer of New York.

In all the trials that Drew and Lippincott ran Drew continuously beat Lippincott by a yard to two yards. If Drew is properly trained for the performance experts predict he will run 100 yards in 9.35 seconds.

Lippincott is a wonderful sprinter too. At the Olympics he ran 100 meters in one of the semifinal heats in 10.35 seconds.

Reller, Patterson and Meyer are all sure ten second men, and under the stress of exciting competition might be able to shade 9.45 seconds a bit. Patterson did a good "nine four" at the intercollegiate games last May, and both Meyer and Reller have made the same time more than once. There are any number of athletic experts who believe Reller will be the man to make the new mark. The Cornell man has shown wonderful improvement during the past year.

boxmen of great ability and will bend over their most puzzling slants. The battle will be one worth going to see as it will be a clash of giants both determined to win.

The visitors will line-up in the following order: Rigot, c; Mason and McGuire, p; W. Bailey, lb; Holt, 2b; Burch, ss; Carver, 3b; Snyder, cf; Delgarn, lf; Troutman, rf.

U. S. SOCCER RECOGNIZED.

Will Enable American Team to Enter Olympic Games.

T. W. Cahill, secretary of the United States of America Football association, received a cable message recently from C. A. W. Hirschman, secretary of the International Football association, saying that the emergency committee of that organization had admitted provisionally to membership the United States of America Football association.

This recognition by the governing soccer body of the world makes it possible for this country to compete in the Olympic soccer games at Berlin in 1916. It also means, according to the announcement made here, that the United States association will conduct the international soccer competition at the Panama canal exposition at San Francisco in 1915.

THE SCHULLMAN COLUMBUS TEAM HERE FOR GAMES

Sunday and Monday afternoon at the usual time at the Washington avenue grounds the practically unbeatable and unbeaten "Schullmans" of Columbus will cross bats with the Athletics, who by the way, have added two new players to the line-up. The new men are Jargon, who will play first base for the locals, and Grandie, who will caper in the outer gardens.

Both men come with the highest of recommendations as players of sterling worth.

Linson will probably go to the mound for the Athletics in an endeavor to check the hard-hitting visitors who, on the occasion of their last visit here took the local team into camp by a small margin after sixteen hard fought innings.

Either Mason or McGuire, who will pitch for the visitors tomorrow, are

CHRISTIAN BIBLE SCHOOL WORKERS.

Sit up and take notice.

It hurts to say it, but the fact is our school was defeated last Sunday by Steubenville in the Inter-City, Anti-Summer Slump contest, the score being 103 per cent to 91 per cent.

This is the third game we have lost out of eight. We should not suffer another defeat.

Next Sunday we play Zanesville, whose score last Sunday was 107 per cent. We must have 200 present to equal that. But we want to more than equal it, so let us boost for 250. Everybody on the field next Sunday.

Here is the standing of the clubs in the league:

The idea of the census is almost as old as history itself. King Amasis of Egypt took a census of his people 500 years before Christ. The Athenians soon established a census for the purpose of facilitating taxation. We learn that about 445 B. C. Servius Tullius took a census of Rome. During the chaos of the dark ages the census dropped into oblivion, but was revived again about the beginning of the eighteenth century.

KINKAID PLANS TO LOWER LIVING COST

MEAT DUTY FREE

Solon Says It Will Save Consumers From 7 to 10 Cents a Pound.
Washington, Aug. 30.—A prediction that the tariff law placing meat on the free list will reduce the cost of living so far as that commodity was concerned, was made in the house by Representative Kinkaid of New Jersey. Mr. Kinkaid read a letter from George C. Engel, a New York commission merchant. Mr. Engel said that he had recently imported 656 hinds of beef and that he had disposed of it at about 1½ cents below the price of the domestic product and had made a reasonable profit. Mr. Kinkaid expressed the opinion that the admission of meat duty free would result in a saving to the consumer of from 7 to 10 cents a pound.

EXTREME ROTTENNESS SHOCKS INQUISITORS

PETITIONS DEFECTIVE

Scores Found by Graves to Carry Fraudulent Signatures.
Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—Scores of petitions, containing thousands of names, were marked for the discard by the showing of referendum frauds in Cleveland, Toledo and Dayton, in the inquiry before Secretary of State Graves. One petition, which was captured by the sleuths of the state administration and was not filed, purported to indicate that leading citizens of the country were so deeply stirred by the referendum contest as to journey to Toledo and inscribe their names. This petition bore the names of Woodrow Wilson, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, Judson Harmon and Brand Whitlock. In Dayton and Cleveland many signatures on petitions were found to be fraudulent.

COUNTING NOSES TO FIX SALOON NUMBER

FEDERAL CENSUS

Will Determine Number of Saloons in Wet Counties.
Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—No school board census will be accepted by the state liquor licensing board as a basis for determining the number of saloons that each county may have under the new law, which allows one saloon to every 500 population. The board has written to the census department at Washington, requesting an estimate of the population of each wet county Nov. 5. If an election board or council takes a census to arrive at the population of a county, the board will carefully scrutinize the report before accepting it. It is understood that many breweries want the school census to be used in figuring the population.

LABOR DAY PARDON TO TWO MURDERERS

PARDONED BY COX

Two Men Convicted of Murder Will Get Their Freedom.
Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—Governor Cox will give the Labor day pardon to George Smith of Summit county, who is serving a life sentence on conviction of second degree murder. He was a day laborer and was convicted in 1906. He was engaged in a saloon brawl in Akron when one of the number was killed. Joseph McGinn, another laborer, serving a life sentence for wife-murder from Trumbull county, also will be granted his freedom Labor day. His sentence was recommended to commutation to 17 years by the board of pardons, and Governor Cox exercises executive clemency on the board's recommendation.

Caminetti's Assumed Name.

San Francisco, Aug. 30.—At the trial of Drew Caminetti for alleged violation of the Mann white slave act, Miss Marsha Warrington's father appeared as a witness. He was called to prove that Caminetti was introduced at the Warrington home as Whitman. Marsha Warrington's testimony was completed and, although the defense tried to break down her evidence, they did not succeed.

DISPUTES THREATEN NEW YORK FUSION

ROOSEVELT IN IT

Tries to Straighten Out Dispute That Threatens the Fusionists.
New York, Aug. 30.—Theodore Roosevelt is taking an active interest in the local political contest. He tried to straighten out a dispute that threatens to disrupt the fusionists, the dispute that arose when George McAneny and other fusion candidates refused to meet John Purroy Mitchell's desire and decline places on the Gaynor ticket before they were offered. He failed. Colonel Roosevelt met Mr. McAneny and the fusion candidates for president at the five boroughs at the Harvard club, told them they had better stick by a straight fusion ticket, and heard that they intend to wait until something is offered before they accept or decline it.

to offset the favorable opinion of the president's utterance.
The $100,000 appropriation which Secretary Bryan asked from congress to assist American refugees will be rushed through next week. The appropriation will be made immediately available, and congress will provide more liberally if it is found that additional funds are needed.
It is evident now that President Wilson expects the Mexican situation to drag along for a considerable period without any final determination as to whether or not the mediation plan is to be accepted or rejected. The president considers that the relations between the two governments have been improved by the more recent interchanges, but it is by no means certain that these interchange will result in an agreement.
President Wilson will remain at his summer home over Labor day. Diplomats point out that the only way which the United States government can expect to triumph in the negotiations is to offer Huerta means by which he can accept the proposals without deep humiliation.

Business Section Burned.

Fredericktown, O., Aug. 30.—The entire business section of this town was destroyed by fire. The blaze started on the second floor of Lewis & Ward's clothing store and spread rapidly. The loss to buildings is estimated at $75,000 and to merchandise at $50,000.

O'Dwyer Lands Job.

Columbus, O., Aug. 30.—John O'Dwyer, vice chairman of the Democratic state central committee, and Charles H. Naum, Progressive, were appointed license commissioners for Lucas county by the state liquor licensing board.

Chief Clements Resigns.

Mt. Vernon, O., Aug. 30.—Chief of Police Rollins S. Clements, who wandered away from home a week ago and who was found in Dayton in a serious condition, tendered his resignation. His successor will be named Monday.
